

AUSTRALIAN FILM INSTITUTE

PROFESSIONAL ACCREDITATION APPLICATION FORM

Professional accreditation is the process to be completed in order to become a Professional Member of the Australian Film Institute (AFI). Those experienced in the film and television industry with screen credits in feature film, documentary, television, short fiction and animation can apply.

A Professional Member of the AFI is eligible to vote in the AFI Award categories according to their accredited role(s). They may also be eligible for judging non-feature and television entries via the relevant AFI Awards Juries. The 'Call for Jurors' and appropriate feature film voting information will be sent to all Professional Members of the AFI.

Once your Professional accreditation application has been approved, you will be notified in writing and a permanent note will be made on your AFI Membership record. You will then become a "Professional Member of the AFI". You can update your Professional accreditation details with the AFI at any time by re-submitting this form.
